1. Introduction

The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd has developed the Responsible Gambling Policy, in consultation with management, employees and members, to minimise harm associated with problem gambling.

In developing the Policy, the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd has realistically taken into account:

- local community concerns on potential harm associated with gambling
- role of the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd in providing a responsible gambling environment, including duty of care for members and patrons who may have a problem with gambling
- rights and responsibilities of members and patrons who may have a Gambling-related problem.

A self-regulatory and voluntary instrument, the Responsible Gambling Policy demonstrates the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd commitment to minimising harm associated with gambling on its employees, members and patrons and the local community.

2. Reference documents

The reference documents for the Responsible Gaming Policy are the:

- Gaming Machine Act 1991
- Liquor Act 1992
- Queensland Responsible Gambling Code of Practice

Section 1A of the Amendment of the Gaming Machine Act 1991 states:

The object of this Act is to ensure that, on balance, the State and the community as a whole benefit from gaming machine gambling.

The balance is achieved by allowing gaming machine gambling subject to a system of regulation and control designed to protect players and the community through –

- (a) ensuring the integrity and fairness of games; and
- (b) ensuring the probity of those involved in the conduct of gaming machine gambling; and
- (c) Minimising the potential for harm from gaming machine gambling.

There is a correlation between the responsible service of alcohol provisions within the Liquor Act 1992 and responsible gambling. The two relevant objects of the Liquor Act 1992 are:

- (a) To facilitate and regulate the optimum development of the tourist, liquor and hospitality industries of the State having regard to the welfare, needs and interests of the community and the economic implications of change; and
- (d) To regulate the liquor industry in a way compatible with –
  - (i) Minimising harm arising from misuse of liquor; and
  - (ii) The aims of the National Health Policy on Alcohol.

The guiding principle of the Queensland Responsible Gambling Code of Practice states:

The Queensland Responsible Gambling Code of Practice is based on shared commitment by gambling industry providers to the guiding principle of ethical and responsible behaviour. This principle recognises the importance of customers' wellbeing with a focus on minimising the potential harm of gambling. In addition, customers' rights to privacy are respected.

3. Policy goals

The goals of the Responsible Gambling Policy are to:

- Manage potential harm associated with gambling by creating a responsible gambling environment.
- Educate and inform board/committee, management, employees, members and patrons and the local community about potential harm associated with gambling.
- Create awareness of significant benefits that will arise where employees, members and patrons and the local community assist the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd in its endeavours to minimise potential harm associated with gambling.
- Ensure compliance with the Gaming Machine Act 1991, Liquor Act 1992 provisions on responsible service of alcohol and the Queensland Responsible Gambling Code of Practice.

4. What is problem gambling?

Problem gambling exists when gambling activity results in a range of adverse consequences where:

- the safety and wellbeing of gambling customers and/or their families and friends are placed at risk; and/or
- Negative impacts extend to the broader community.

5. Potential harmful effects of problem gambling

Some potential harmful effects of problem gambling on individuals and the community are:

- Personal – stress, depression and anxiety, poor health, suicide.
- Work and study – job loss, absenteeism, poor performance.
- Financial – financial hardships, debts, asset losses, bankruptcy.
- Legal – theft, fraud, scams.
- Interpersonal – domestic violence, relationship breakdown, family neglect.
- Community services – pressure on charities and public purses.

6. What is responsible gambling?

Responsible gambling occurs in a regulated environment where the potential for harm associated with gambling is minimised and people make informed decisions about their participation in gambling.

Responsible gambling occurs as a result of the collective actions and shared ownership by individuals, communities, the gambling industry and the Government to achieve outcomes that are socially responsible and responsive to community concerns.

7. Harm minimisation strategies

The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd has a responsibility to ensure that the Gaming Machine Act 1991, Liquor Act 1992 and the Queensland Responsible Gambling Code of Practice are strictly adhered to in the provision of gambling products and services. Therefore, [Insert Club Name] will implement the following strategies to minimise the potential harm associated with gambling:

1. Provision of information

- Responsible gambling information
The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will make available responsible gambling information, including the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd's Responsible Gambling Statement, Player Information Guide outlining odds/win rates of major prizes, signage on potential harm associated with gambling and brochures on where to get help for problem gambling, for information of members and patrons and will alert them on the availability of this information by putting signage at the entrance to gambling areas (or other suitable locations) in the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd.

2. Interaction with customers and community

- Community liaison
The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will designate a senior staff member to liaise with the community by facilitating discussion and establishing networks between the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd and community support agencies on responsible gambling issues.
- Customer liaison
The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will designate a senior staff member to perform the customer liaison role. This role will include facilitating communication between members and patrons and the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd on responsible gambling issues, including complaint handling procedures and self-exclusion provisions.
- Customer complaints
The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will inform members and patrons about procedures for lodging complaints and will strive to deal with the complaints in a timely manner. Where the outcomes are not to the satisfaction of the complainant, the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will inform the complainant of other avenues of redress, in particular Queensland Office of Gaming Regulation, Liquor Licensing Division, Clubs Queensland and their solicitor.
- Training and skills development
The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will ensure that gambling-related service staff receives appropriate information and training, on an ongoing basis, in responsible provision of gambling and gambling products. They will also be provided with appropriate training regarding the Responsible Gambling Policy so they are well informed and better positioned to provide advice and assistance to members and patrons regarding the Responsible Gambling Policy and its goals. Upon request, the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will assist management and employees who may have a problem with gambling as outlined in the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd's Responsible Gambling Employee Support Policy.

3. Exclusion provisions

- Self-exclusion

The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will implement self-exclusion provisions at the request of members and patrons who think they may have a problem with gambling to control their gambling habits. The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will provide a list of local community support agencies to members or patrons who request self-exclusion from the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd and also encourage them to exclude themselves from other gambling venues in the area. The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will undertake regular reviews of self-exclusion provisions to assess their effectiveness.

- Venue exclusion

The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will assess each venue exclusion using a range of evidences sources. Venue exclusion will only be initiated after the option of self-exclusion has been exhausted. The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will ensure that all required forms are completed and the relevant staff notified of the exclusion.

4. Physical environment

- Minors

The Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd will prohibit all persons under the age of 18 from gambling or being present in areas where adults are gambling and will alert members and patrons on these prohibitions by putting signage at the entrance to gambling areas (or other suitable locations) in the Aspley Australian Football & Sporting Club Ltd.
